

EASS & ISSA 2026 Conference Detailed Programme

Main venue: University of Jyväskylä Seminaarinmäki campus (Seminaarinkatu 15), Main building (C) & Seminarium building (S)

Conference website: <https://www.jyu.fi/en/events/responsibilities-and-responses-of-sport-in-contemporary-society-2026>

Conference programme

Sunday, 14 June

ISSA Board Meeting
13:00-16:00 at Alba Hotel

PhD Workshop Social Programme
17:00-21:00 Loc: Laajavuori Lampila
for pre-registered participants (See full description on the website)

Monday, 15 June

EASS Board Meeting

09:00-12:00 at Lyhty Building (P 302)

PhD Workshop

for pre-registered participants (See full description and the programme on the website)
09:00-17:00 at C building (C4)

Registration open 12:00-22:00
at Main building (C) Lobby

Opening Ceremony
18:00-22:00 at Main building (C) lobby

Tuesday, 16 June

Registration open 8:30
at Main building (C) Lobby

Keynote, Oscar Mwaanga
Chair: Hannele Harjunen
9:00-10:00 at Main building C1

Coffee break
10:00-10:30 at Main building (C) lobby

Parallel sessions
10:30-12:30

| Thematic session: Professionalization and Development of Sport Clubs (Sport Organisations Research Network (SORN)) | Thematic session: Cultural and Structural Changes in Disability Sport | Sub-Theme: Sport and Education | Sub-Theme: Sport, Health and Wellbeing | Sub-Theme: Sport, Social Inclusion and Exclusions | Sub-Theme: Sport and Power Relations | Thematic session: The Gendered Body in Motion: Sociological Insights into Health and Wellbeing in Sport and Exercise | Thematic session: Theorizing the gendered sport organization | Thematic session: Sports as workplace | Sub-Theme: Sport and Media |
|---|--|---|---|---|--|---|---|--|--|
| Room: Main building C1 | Room: Main building C2 | Room: Main building C310 | Room: Main building C4 | Room: Main building C411 | Room: Main building C5 | Room: Seminarium S204 | Room: Seminarium S203 | Room: Seminarium S303 | Room: Seminarium S304 |
| Chair: Siegfried Nagel ID 426: Policy development towards professionalisation of voluntary sports clubs in the Netherlands (Jora Broerse) ID 442: The Autonomization of Mountaineering: Quasi-Sportification and the Institutional Emergence of Mountaineering Schools within the Italian Alpine Club (Alicia Chiodi) | Chair: Aija Saari ID 70: Benefits of a Paralympic Sports Training Program: Evidence from Disabled Athletes in Colombia (Tegwen Gadais) ID 213: Sports motivation and sports opportunities of people with physical disability: | Chair: Michal Jasny ID 188: Education should be the priority”: the perspective of Brazilian migrant men football academy players’ mothers on dual career (Renato Marques) ID 381: Doing gender in PE: Teachers’ Constructions of | Chair: Henriikka Koivukoski ID 123: Exploring the experiences of fear of movement in pregnant and postpartum sporting/exercising women (Morgan Rogers) ID 169: Social Determinants of Women’s Physical Activity and BMI: | Chair: Emmanuelle Tulle ID 96: The Influence of the Commodification of Quest Narratives on Stigma (Niels Boysen Feddersen) ID 158: Sports participation of persons with physical disabilities in the Netherlands | Chair: Brent McDonald ID 274: Between Soft Power and Sportswashing: Taiwan's Instrumentalisation of Guestworkers and Indigenous Communities through Sport (Chun-Chieh Lin) ID 401: Deconstructing the | Chairs: Emma Pullen and Lucy Piggott ID 371: A critical analysis of new biotechnology measures in women's sport: The cases of SRY sex testing and egg freezing (Lucy Piggott) ID 54: Contempt as a Technology of Misogyny: Women and Gender Diverse Coaches in Youth Baseball (Travers Travers) | Chairs: Pirkko Markula and Annelies Knoppers ID 21: Dimensions of Professionalization: A Comparative Analysis of Women’s Soccer in the United States and Poland (Rachel Allison) ID 214: Female Leadership and Legitimacy in Male-Dominated Sports | Chair: Suvi Heikkinen ID 46: The “Ethical Attitudes” Demanded of University Students Mobilized as Coaches in Japanese School Sports (Tomohiro Uozumi) ID 348: Raising barriers and creating juctures? The impact of | Chair: Veera Ehrlén ID 390: Finnish Press and the Societal Issues of Mega-Sport Events: A Discourse Analysis of Helsingin Sanomat’s Coverage of the Barcelona 1992 and Paris 2024 Summer Olympics (Tuomas Häkli) |

| | | | | | | | | | |
|---|--|--|--|---|--|--|--|---|---|
| ID 225: Participation fatigue among young people in sports clubs (Ulrike Burrmann) | The case of Hungary (Bernadett Tóth) | Masculinity in Polish Secondary Schools (Natalia Organista) | Evidence From Jordan and Hungary (Lina Takruri) | (Angelina Gomez Berns) | Winter Olympic Games: A Post/colonial Reading toward Critical Global Citizenship Education Informed by Boaventura de Sousa Santos' Epistemologies of the South (Jae Chul Seo) | ID 221: Girl's Can't Ball:" The Exclusion, Resistance and Empowerment in Womens-only Soccer (Greg Yerashotis) | Governance (Kendra McCoy) | professionalization on volunteer engagement (Maria Johansson) | ID 393: Sports from public and private broadcasters: Comparing Finnish television's studio coverage of FIFA Men's World Cup Qatar 2022 (Antti Laine) |
| ID 265: Legitimization Process and Governance of Hybridized Sports Facility Project: A Case Study of the GrIFK Football Arena in Finland (Huhtanen & Salmikangas) | ID 365: Negotiating Mainstreaming in Paraspport: European Comparisons and the Finnish Sport System (Jari Lämsä) | ID 209: Recasting the Coach Role in School Table Tennis in Taiwan: Micropolitics of External Coaching and Educational Equity (Yu-Wen Chen) | ID 204: Power Over Bodies and Minds: Athletes' Agency and Mental Health in Elite Sport (Veera Manninen) | ID 231: Personal sport stories of thirteen young LGBTQIA+ individuals: A qualitative study (Tessa Visser) | ID427: Sport-related references in official biographies of political representatives: a case study of the 199th United States Congress (Guilherme Nothen) | ID 80: Bio-Psychological Glitch: Motherhood as Rupture, Resistance, and Re-becoming in the China's Elite Sports (Bo Peng) | ID 373: Gendered Pathways in Football Coaching: A Comparative Study of Female Coaches in Croatia and Slovenia (Sunčica Bartoluci) | ID 173: Rethinking Peak Performance: Biological Assumptions and Institutionalized Career Pathways in Women's Volleyball (Chae-woon Park) | ID 133: What role does cooperation play in the online film presentation of road cycling by professional teams? (Andreas Kewes) |
| ID 272: Constructing a Competency Model for Chinese Talent in International Sport Organizations: An Iceberg Model Approach (Zixi Sun) | ID 316: Belonging, Focus, and the Negotiation of Ableism: Neurodivergent Inclusion in Archery (Matej Christiaens) | ID 210: Constructing a Digital Competency Framework for Pre-service Physical Education Teachers (Haotian Hou) | ID 222: The Health Effects of Watching Sports Events and Their Mechanisms: Evidence from Chinese General Social Survey 2010-2023 (Tengjun Zhou) | ID 263: Sport and Social Inclusion: Who Are We Helping, and How? (János Novák) | ID 97: Post-structuring the LTAD: Is it possible? (Joseph Mills) | ID 89: Women's Empowerment in Motion: Embodied Experiences of Rowing in Urban Space (Merve Üsküplü) | ID 438: Crisis, community, and (re-)construction: Women's flat track roller derby after the Covid-19 pandemic (Michele K. Donnelly) | ID 397: Exploring novel questions and contributions at the governance-HRM nexus (Cecilia Stenling) | ID 102: Star Athletes-as-Influencers: Challenges and transformations to traditional sport stardom (Damion Sturm) |
| ID 282: "More than a Club - Other than Sports": Sport Clubs' Interpretations of their Changing Role and Enactment of Wider Social Responsibilities (Julius Z. Strömberg) | ID 366: Between Autonomy and Integration: Organisational Models in European Deaf Sport (Kaisu Mononen) | ID 404: The relationship between differences in elementary school swimming lessons and children's enjoyment for swimming classes (Takeshi Nakayama) | ID 227: Lived experience of prolonged physical inactivity: temporal dimension (Ana Cikač) | ID 82: The Sport Experiences of imprisoned Women: A Systematic Review of Qualitative Studies (Johannes Müller) | ID 162: Outcomes of Sport-Based Interventions Implemented in Coercive or Custodial Settings: a Scoping Review (Anna Greiner) | ID 74: „Normative Femininity” versus „Sporting Femininity”: Negotiating Gender Norms in Professional Women's Sport (Karolina Kierońska-Olszewska) | ID 139: Gender Equity and Olympic Participation: Progress, Driving Forces, and Challenges for Chinese Women (Aihong Zhang) | ID 193: FIFA's Own Goal or Saudi Arabia's Open Goal? A Mixed-Methods Analysis of Sportswashing Discourse in the 2034 World Cup Bid (Erya Hsue) | ID 133: What role does cooperation play in the online film presentation of road cycling by professional teams? (Andreas Kewes) |
| ID 282: "More than a Club - Other than Sports": Sport Clubs' Interpretations of their Changing Role and Enactment of Wider Social Responsibilities (Julius Z. Strömberg) | ID 375: Sports in national action plans on disability – a comparative analysis of Germany and Austria (Torsten Wojciechowski) | | ID 260: The Price of Excellence - Exploring Well-Being in Swedish Elite Judokas (Leah Marie Monsees) | ID 273: Governing the Unmanageable: Understanding Dilemmas and Paradoxes in Contemporary Sport (Mike Sam) | | | | | ID 233: Constructing 'Football Hooliganism' in Finland: Media Representations of Football-Related Disorder (Joel Hakkarainen) |

Lunch break
12:30-13:30

You'll find several restaurants on campus - see details on the website
You can have your lunch in Ilokivi, Lozzi, Taide and Uno restaurants

Parallel sessions/ ISSA AB meeting 13:30-15:10
Poster Session at Main Aula (C) Building 13:30-15:00

| Thematic session: Studying harassment and safety in women's running: international cultural and geographic analysis (SHE RUNS project) | Thematic session: Movement with Animals and in Nature | Thematic session: Sports as workplace | Thematic session: Measuring Social Inequalities in Sports and the Role of Public Policies (MEASURE Research Network) | Sub-Theme: Sport and Asia | Sub-Theme: Sport, Nation and Identities | Sub-Theme: Sport and Power Relations | Sub-Theme: Sport and Doping | Sub-Theme: Sport and Gender | ISSA AB meeting (12:30-14:30) |
|---|--|---|---|---|--|--|--|---|---|
| Room: Main building C1 | Room: Main building C2 | Room: Main building C310 | Room: Main building C4 | Room: Main building C411 | Room: Main building C5 | Room: Seminarium S203 | Room: Seminarium S204 | Room: Seminarium S303 | Room: Lozzi Cabinet Alvar |
| Chair: Joanne Hill ID 178: Women's narratives of safety, community, and familiarity when running: SHE RUNS data from England (Joanne Hill) ID 359: Routes of Risk: Women Runners' Lived Experiences in the Southern California Landscape (Julie Brice) ID 271: Governing Safe Sport: A Comparative Archaeological Analysis of Safeguarding Codes in Singapore and Malaysia (Yong-Yee Chong) | Chair: Aija Siiriäinen ID 107: Unequal access to nature: sport as a lens on environmental inequalities (Baptiste Fouquet) ID 155: Governing by Reports: Reporting Led Sport Sustainability and Washing Risks in Taiwan through a Strategic Relational Lens (Ren-Shiang Jiang) ID 418: Nature as a space of resonance: Bridging resonance theory, Sami worldviews and deep ecology in human-nature practices (Eivind Å. Skille) ID 64: From Recreation to Responsibility: Park-Based Sport and | Chair: Suvi Heikkinen ID 14: Valuation Standards and the Reconfiguration of Status Hierarchies in Turkish Professional Football (Bartu Ersen) ID 112: "First we fight for life and death and then we drive home": Social sustainability in the social contract of work in elite sport (Joakim Särkivuori) | Chairs: Jeroen Scheerder and Remco Hoekman ID 266: An investigation into the benefits and challenges of using Olympic sport as a means of empowerment, integration, and advocacy for refugees (Jeehoo Kim) ID 305: Beyond Attendance: Methodological Challenges in Measuring the Social Impact of Inclusive Sport Events (Celia Marcen) ID 368: Sport participation and the public acceptance of local sports policy in the Netherlands. Developments over time. (Remco Hoekman) ID 408: (Dis)Assembling Intersectoral Collaboration Between Ministries for the Promotion of Physical Activity in Chilean Schools (Rodrigo Soto-Lagos) ID 422: Sports participation: a lens for analyzing integration. Findings from the 2020 French National Survey on Physical | Chair: Sun-Yong Kwon ID 388: When Is Losing Rational? Competition Manipulation and Labour Conditions in South Korean Sport (Seul ki Park) ID 201: Hot Phenomenon and Cold Reflection: The Value, Dilemma, and Pathways of the Jiangsu Provincial City Football League (Luo JianFeng) ID 387: Whose body is it?: Data-Driven Surveillance, Labour | Chair: Kola Adeosun ID 79: For the Love of the Nation? A Critical Autoethnography of a Sport Sociologist/Media Commentator During Taiwan's WBSC Premier12 2024 Run (Tzu-hsuan Chen) ID 199: Identity Formation through Sports and Language: The Use of Japanese language in Taiwan Baseball (Ani Tung) ID 200: Elite sport and institutionalized egalitarianism: a contextual analysis of a deviant case (Lars Tore Ronglan) | Chair: Kati Lehtonen ID 174: Poland's State Capitalism, State Dirigisme and the European Games (Wojciech Wozniak) ID 189: "Kids in garages": The Structural Vulnerabilities of Start-Ups in Sport (Daniele Canini) ID 203: Navigating Public Value Pluralism in Sport Governance and Policy (Sari Lappalainen) ID 101: Basketball and the Fourth Estate: a case for local involvement (Alex Volonte) ID 138: Cultivating Embodied Athletic Capital: How | Chair: Mikko Simula ID 291: Socio-technical Pathways of Doping in India: An ethnographic enquiry (Abhijay Abhijay) ID 264: Autobiographies as a sociological resource (Patrick Trabal) ID 302: Types of whistleblowers on doping in sport (Felix Kühnle) ID 374: The production of distrust in anti-doping: the case of | Chair: Brent McDonald ID 221: "Girl's Can't Ball:" The Exclusion, Resistance and Empowerment in Womens-only Soccer (Greg Yerashotis) ID 206: Female fans in men's football in Norway. Preliminary findings (Arve Hjelseth) ID 151: From Women-Friendly to Gender-Exclusive: Boundaries and Paradoxes of Women-Only Sports Spaces (Kaixi ZHAO) | ISSA Advisory Board members only. |

| | | | | | | | | | |
|--|--|--|--|--|---|---|--|---|--|
| | Environmental Sustainability (François Gravelle) | ID420: Making a career out of sport – emerging professional occupations in sports (Åsa Bäckström) ID 443: When Volunteers Become Employers: Working Conditions in Nordic Sport Organisations (Anne Tjønnndal) | and Sports Practices (ENPPS) (Olivier Aubel) | Control, and the Commodification of Athletes' Bodies in South Korean Professional Volleyball (Eon Hye Kim) ID 124: The Development of School Sports Federation in Japan: An analysis of Historical Sociology (Atsushi Nakazawa) | ID 208: Psalms from the stands? Towards an understanding of football songs (Hans K Hognestad) ID 128: Convivial Encounters and Everyday Difference in Amateur Sport: An Ethnographic Study of Immigrant Men in North Karelia, Finland (Karl Hancock) | Student-Athletes Internalize Institutional Control (Atalanta Copeman-Papas) | the 23 Chinese swimmers (Harry Grimes) ID 29: Professional cycling, power relations, and the development of anti-doping functions (John Connolly) | ID 170: Gear-Company Filmmaking, Bodily Vulnerability, and Feminist Potentials on the Ultramarathon Trail (Sam Kass) ID 172: Gendering Sport Diplomacy: Taiwan's Strategic Use of Gender Equality, 1971–2025 (Yi-Chun Huang) | |
|--|--|--|--|--|---|---|--|---|--|

Poster Session at Main Aula (C) Building 13:30-15:00

Guidelines: Poster presenters are reserved 1:30 h in total to present their research (in free order).

ID 40: Co-Production and Cross-Pollination in Adaptive Sport: A Participatory Framework for Tiro en Braille and Goalball UG at the Universidad de Guanajuato (Flor de María García Ramos)

ID 63: What access do refugees have to grassroots sports? Opportunities and risks of sports development through the integration of people with migration background (Sven Kelly)

ID 81: Sport Responsibilities and Educational Responses to Children's Physical Activity Decline in Low-Fertility, Aging Societies (Takeshi Kurihara)

ID 197: Constructing a Career Adaptation Evaluation System for Retired Athletes Transitioning into School Sports Coaches Based on Grounded Theory (Zuen Cheng)

ID 210: Constructing a Digital Competency Framework for Pre-service Physical Education Teachers (Haotian Hou)

ID 220: Development and Evaluation of Educational Materials for Preventing Cycles of Violence and Power Harassment in University Physical Education and Sports Sciences (Taichi Yasunaga)

ID 240: Beyond a Normative Sport-Centered Approach: Rethinking Rule Modification in Sport Education through the Case of Catch Volleyball (Sho Shiraishi)

ID 241: The Decline of the “Invisible Runner” in Children’s Baseball Play (Ryotaro Konya)

ID 310: The bright and dark sides of sociability - Results and methodological issues of a representative online survey “Sociopolitical Attitudes in Organized Sports” in Germany (Katrin Albert)

ID 318: Student-Athletes in Japan and Athlete-Students in Taiwan: Governing Dual-Career Development in University Sport (Jie-Lin Tsai)

ID 356: A Study on the Ambivalence of School Sport Club Coaches Regarding the Coaching of Reserve Members (Daiki Taneya)

ID 398: “Inclusive practice is the goal, but the subject is not always built for it”: Physical Education teachers’ practices with transgender students (Vårin Sofie Johansen)

Coffee break
15:10-15:40 at Main building (C) lobby

Parallel sessions/ Panel Discussion
15:40-17:00

| | | | | | | | | | |
|--|--|--|---|---|---|---|---|--|--|
| Panel Discussion 15:30-16:30 | Sub-Theme: Sport, Body and Intersectionality | Thematic session: Theorizing the gendered sport organization | Thematic session: Movement with Animals and in Nature | Thematic session: Advancing Women in Coaching | Sub-Theme: Sport, Nation and Identities | Thematic session: Bridging Global North & South in Sport Research (GLOBES Research Network) | Sub-Theme: Sport, Development and Peace | Thematic session: What is the role of sports sociology in addressing integrity issues? | Sub-Theme: Sport and Power Relations |
| Room: Main building C1 | Room: Main building C2 | Room: Main building C310 | Room: Main building C411 | Room: Main building C4 | Room: Main building C5 | Room: Seminarium S203 | Room: Seminarium S204 | Room: Seminarium S303 | Room: Seminarium S304 |

| | | | | | | | | | |
|---|--|---|--|--|--|---|--|---|---|
| Chairs: Alana Richardson & Tegwen Gadais Invited: Umair Asif, Derrick Charway, Jenny Fischer (or Josie Tradberg,) Danilo Ponciano Title: “Youth Voices Shaping the Future of Sport for Development, Peace and the Environment: Responsibilities, Tensions, and Transformations” PANEL OVERVIEW (for program / opening) This panel brings together emerging scholars from across the globe (Pakistan, Ghana, Norway, Germany/Scotland, Australia) affiliated with the UNESCO Chair on Sport for Development, Peace and the Environment (SDPE). Through a moderated discussion, panelists will explore how sport can respond to contemporary global challenges—including climate change, social inequalities, and cultural tensions—while critically reflecting on power, context, and sustainability. | Chair: Hannele Harjunen ID 312: Revisiting the phenomenology of sporting bodies: A Systematic Review (Anu Watson) ID 237: Beyond Physical Capabilities: Producing Bodily Value in Professional Football (Rafał Wysoczański-Minkowicz) ID 425: Normative Body Classifications in Physical Education: Talented, Gendered, Shy, and Hindered Bodies (Funda Akcan) | ChairS: Pirkko Markula and Annelies Knoppers ID 98: A grossly overlooked topic. The menstruation management in the Polish professional sports clubs and federations (Honorata Jakubowska) ID 379: Can media imaginings shape sporting futures?: A Spinozian examination of the substance of Heated Rivalry and the limits/possibilities of change in sport organisations (Allison Jeffrey) ID 126: Gender issues in amateur esports: A literature review (Michał Jasny) ID 276: Different Rules - Same Sport? (Emilie Weible) | Chair: Antti Laine ID 292: Outdoor Education without “Outdoor”: Dark Ecology Perspective on Nature and Risk in Outdoor Education in South Korea (Seungil Park) ID 93: Troubled spaces for multispecies physical activity: Human-dog activeness and wellbeing formation in urban public spaces and policies (Aija Siiriäinen) | Chair: Astrid Schubring ID 257: Advancing women coaches in high-performance sport: A document analysis of support strategies (Huihan Ye) ID 295: Navigating Gendered Power Structures: Women in Alpine Ski Coaching (Saša Pišot) ID 361: Males and Females experiences of the Learning Climate in a Football Coach Education (Tor Söderström) ID 400: Let them coach’: The Career Development of Early-Career Women Football Coaches (Jule Marie Wagner) | Chair: Veera Ehrlén ID 130: Backcountry skiing as Norway’s national sport? A Theoretical exploration (Tarjei Tveito Skille) ID 67: Pacing the Field: National representation, Gendered identities, and Elite Performance Among Dutch Caribbean Track and Field Female Athletes (Lis Camelia) ID 218: The Construction of Nationalism, National Identity and Belonging Through Sports Stadiums in Taiwan (Cheng-Chia Lin) | Chairs: Jeroen Schreeder, Karen Petry and Oscar Mwaanga ID 364: The effects of the ‘new geopolitical world order’ on the Global Sport for Development Sector (Karen Petry) ID 411: Sport for Development and Climate Action – A Stakeholder Analysis (Sally-Ann Jennifer Fischer) ID 261: Examining the physical, social and spiritual activities that shape the migration experiences of West-Central Africans (Astou Thiam) ID 41: Rethinking Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) from a World System Perspective (Global North vs Global South): Geography, Nationality, and Language in Leading Academic Journals (2010-2024) (Daniel Añorve Añorve) | Chair: Michal Lenartowicz ID 109: Young women as sport for development leaders: lessons from Festival23 (Marion Sturges) ID 134: Decolonising MEL as a White European Academic in a Global North University: Considering the Consequences of Reframing Impact in Sport for Development and Peace (David Scott) ID 141: Reimagining Futures through Sport for Development: Youth Aspirations, Activism and Climate Justice in Coastal Brazil (Eva Soares Moura) ID 447: Dance, Culture and Environmental Education in the Landless Workers' Movement (MST): Practices and Meanings in Southern Brazil (Daiana Viacelli) | Chair: Mike Sam ID 413: Using sport as a tool for inclusion for socially disadvantaged people (David Kotthaus) ID 385: Judgement Call: Referees and the Moral Boundaries of Playing Football (Marko Kananen) ID 414: Soft Power and Nation Branding in Germany – A Case Study from EURO 2024 on the Perceptions of Sustainability Actions (Dominik Krüssmann) ID 247: The Rodchenkov Anti-Doping Act: Long-Arm Jurisdiction in Sports Governance and the Extension of U.S. Power (Longqiang Zhao) | Chair: Outi Aarresola ID 412: “Of course... but maybe...” – Axioms in Hungarian sport as obstacles to change (Tamás Dóczi) ID 249: “All the time you are like in danger”: Precarity and sports migrant labor in Finland (Saara Isosomppi) ID 120: How is sport legitimated in local governance? Evidence from Finnish local politicians and administrators (Anna Lee) |
|---|--|---|--|--|--|---|--|---|---|

| | | | | | | | | | |
|--|--|--|--|---|--|--|---|--|--|
| | | | | | | | | | |
| Finnish Sauna Experience 17:45-21:00 (Departure by bus from the Main building (C) Entrance) Note: The bus will depart at 17:45. Please arrive at the Main building (C) Entrance on time. Late arrivals may miss the bus. | | | | Canoeing Tour 17:30-21:00 (Meeting point at Hotel Alba) | | | Finnish Baseball 18:00-20:00 (Departure on foot from the Main building (C) Entrance at 17:45) | | |

Wednesday, 17 June

Registration open 8:30
at Main building (C) Lobby

Keynote 1, Kaari Mattila
Chair: Billy Graeff
9:00-10:00 at Main building C1

Coffee break
10:00-10:30
at Main building (C) lobby

Parallel sessions/ ISSA General Assembly
10:30-12:30

| | | | | | | | | | |
|--------------------------------------|--|--|---|--|---|--|---|---|---|
| ISSA General Assembly 11:00-12:00 | Sub-Theme: Sport and Gender | Sub-Theme: Sport and Communities | Sub-Theme: Violence in sport Child protection and safeguarding in sport | Thematic session: Professionalization and Development of Sport Clubs (Sport Organisations Research Network (SORN)) | Sub-Theme: Child protection and safeguarding in sport | Sub-Theme: Sport, Development and Peace | Sub-Themes: Sport and Media Sport and Commercialization Sport and New Technologies | Sub-Theme: Youth Sport | Sub-Theme: Sport and Power Relations Sport, Social Inclusion and Exclusions |
| Room: Main building C1 | Room: Main building C2 | Room: Main building C310 | Room: Main building C411 | Room: Main building C4 | Room: Main building C5 | Room: Seminarium S203 | Room: Seminarium S204 | Room: Seminarium S303 | Room: Seminarium S304 |
| | Chairs: Emma Pullen ID 205: Navigating Normativity in Sport: Body, Gender, Sexuality, and Liminal Agency (Veera Ehrlén) ID 76: Questioning the absence of things: The discursive construction and practices of | Chair: Marko Kananen ID 380: Fostering Cross-administrative Municipal Governance: Content Analysis of Expert Interviews on Boundary Work around the City of Helsinki Physical Activity Programme (Mikko Simula) | Chair: Mojca Doupona ID 399: Queer Youth in Competitive Sport – Interpersonal Violence, Discrimination and Exclusion (Birgit Braumüller) ID 350: Overcoming Institutional Barriers: An Evaluation of the 'Safe at Training' Program in the Context of Norwegian Sports (Hanne Sogn) | Chair: Siegfried Nagel ID 307: Defining Voluntary Work in Youth Sport: How Members Construct What Counts and Who Contributes (Louise Lindkvist) ID 325: Exploring the impact of managing professionals at voluntary sports clubs (VCSs) in The Netherlands (Marnik Koekoek) ID 127: From volunteerism to professionalization in | Chair: Hanna-Mari Ikonen ID 36: Understanding safeguarding for sports participants and coaches: An assessment of the proposed Workforce Governance and Registration Scheme. (Saffron Quinlan) ID 113: Making the invisible visible: a narrative case study of | Chair: Veera Manninen ID 69: Milestones model for Sport for Development and Peace: Proposing and Validating Analytical Frameworks to Map and Understand Uses (Derrick Charway) ID 196: The Gloss, the Grind and the Challenges: A Reflexive Thematic | Chair: Antti Laine ID 337: What can an examination of Australian women's sports media policy tell us about Australian women's sports media on streaming services? (Michael Ward) | Chair: Josef Fahlen ID 253: A Study on Coaching Attitudes/Behaviors and Practices in Japanese Youth Baseball: Focusing on the Cultural Structure of Youth Baseball (Kazuya Yagi) ID 343: The status of junior | Chair: Outi Aarresola ID 73: Conflicting Perceptions of Good Governance in Sports (Marjukka Mikkonen) ID 314: The responsibility to research white dominant structures in regard to racism in club- |

| | | | | | | | | |
|---|--|---|---|---|---|---|--|---|
| menstruation in sport in Taiwan (Ying Chiang) ID 168: Gender and Cultural Change in Hungarian Equestrianism (Erzsébet Hegyi) ID 3: Iranian Elite Sportswomen: Docile yet Defiant Bodies (Marjan Saffari) ID 195: The 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup: a documentary analysis of its Human Rights Legacy and Influence on Gender Equity in Australian Grassroots Sports (Jorge Knijnik) ID 202: "It's not a knowledge problem, but an implementation problem": Sport Organizations' Perspectives on Gender Equity in Coaching (Astrid Schubring) | ID 2: Sense of Belonging and Commitment to Community Development through Community Sport (Christine Dallaire) ID 45: Development and Feasibility Testing of a Major Sporting Event Engagement Toolkit for Community Based Organisations: A Qualitative Study Using the RE-AIM Framework (Xiao Liang) ID 121: Playing Together, Competing Apart? Sport at the Intersection of Diversity, Deprivation and Media Discourses (Louis Moustakas) ID 293: Problematizing 'Social Value': Policy Discourse in the Korean Sports Club Act Enactment (Kwon Kim) ID 287: Managing an Uncertain World: Understanding Participation in Physical Activity-Based Light Communities among Young Adults in Korea (Hojin Shin) | ID 243: Extremism Prevention in Organised Sport. A Qualitative Analysis of the Structural Embedding of Extremism Prevention Activities in Selected Sports Clubs (Tobias Schleifer) ID 268: Gender-based violence in athletics in Kenya: a discourse and qualitative analysis of policies and programs (Diana Korir) ID 434: Abusive but productive: A critical realist analysis of institutional conditions shaping the normalisation of abuse in high-performance sport (Yoon Jin Kim) ID 352: Prevalence of Violations in Sports Among Children and Youth, and the Risk of Revictimization (Kari Fasting) | coaching: Biographical opportunities and risks for coaches and athletes (Eivind Skille) ID 423: Codetermination without engagement: Institutional barriers to participation in professional football clubs in Germany (Sandy Adam) ID 144: Competencies of professional managers in Voluntary Sports Clubs (Resie Hoeijmakers) ID 95: Federation Advisory programs to promote sports club development – a multi-level process-oriented approach (Siegfried Nagel) | grooming, and sexual abuse against boys in youth team sport (Andrea Saenz Olmedo) ID 135: Towards safer youth sport: What athletes' lived experience reveals about prevention, care, and accountability (Hisham Bachouri-Muniesa) ID 163: A Way Forward? Utilising Narrative Pedagogy to Prevent Abusive Behaviour Towards Young Referees (Inger Eliasson) ID 182: Parental Responsibility in Youth Sport: A Theoretical Discussion of Basic Psychological Needs and Safeguarding (Mine Kızılgüneş) ID 246: Awareness or "safewashing"? Reflections on the democratization of safeguarding among international sport federations (Carole Gomez) | Narrative Analysis of the "Viral Creek Football Star" in China and His Sport-as-a-Way-Out Stories (You Li) ID 211: Football for Development and Social Cohesion in Czech Republic (Arnost Svoboda) ID 215: Beyond Western Models: Sport, Cultural Values, and Education in the Q'ero Aboriginal Indigenous community (Federica Comazzi) ID 94: "They're gonna get pissed off with that!": Reflections on failure in an attempt to co-design a meaningful monitoring, evaluation, and learning framework (James Lever) ID 106: How Sport for Development Programs Contribute to Preventing Violent Extremism in Pakistan: Stakeholder Perspectives (Simon Rosenbaum) | ID 217: Online professionalization in bodybuilding in France and raising capital to build credibility (Philippe Terral) ID 354: Challenges to an Ethics of Care in a Sport Crisis: Textual Disruptions in Online Chatter (Toni Bruce) ID 392: Centralization, Professionalization, and Globalization: A Historical Analysis of Olympic Games Coverage and Broadcasting in Chin (Zesheng Yang) ID 25: Body Awakening and Self-discovery: Digital Fitness Practices of Full-Time Urban Housewives in the Digital Age (Chen JIA) ID 157: Data-informed talent identification in junior football: Promises, pitfalls, and possibilities for balance (Pekka Mertala Mertala) | participants and the terms of engagement in adult-led football activities (Tytti Soini) ID 103: Constructions of the function of referees by adolescent athletes and their perspectives on the abuse of referees (Astrid Cevaal) ID 125: Family Culture or Economic Constraints? Socioeconomic Differences in Children's Participation in Organized Sports (Takuya Shimokubo) ID 335: Debunking One of the Backbones of Capitalist Socialization: Youth Football as Ideological Reproduction (Zsombor Csupport) ID 44: Becoming a para-athlete: exploring young athletes' career pathways into parasport (Stefanie Haberstock) | organized sport (Lara Kronenbitter) ID 340: "If you're not ready to die in the ring... stay outside": Mediators of sacrifice in boxing necropolitical-economy (Bachir Sirois-Moumni) ID 37: Is exercise really for everyone? – The aspiration and reality of social participation in children's and youth sports (Pina Li Süss) ID 185: Integration of Refugee Children in Primary School Sport: A Quantitative Study Among Sport Teachers in Berlin (Rebekka Lang Fuentes) |
|---|--|---|---|---|---|---|--|---|

Lunch break

12:00-13:00

You'll find several restaurants on campus see details on the website

You can have your lunch in Ilokivi, Lozzi, Taide and Uno resturants

Parallel Sessions /YRA Ceremony/ Panel Discussion

13:30-15:10

| YRA Ceremony 13:30-14:30 | Sub-Theme: Sport and Ethnicity | Sub-Theme: Methodology in Sociology of Sport | Thematic session: Theorizing the gendered sport organization | Sub-Theme: Sport events | Sub-Theme: Youth Sport | Sub-Theme: Sport, Body and Intersectionality | Sub-Theme: Sport, Social Inclusion and Exclusions | Sub-Theme: Sport and Education | Sub-Theme: Sport, Health and Wellbeing |
|--|--|---|---|--|---|--|---|---|---|
| Room: Main building C1 | Room: Main building C2 | Room: Main building C310 | Room: Main building C411 | Room: Main building C4 | Room: Main building C5 | Room: Seminarium S203 | Room: Seminarium S204 | Room: Seminarium S303 | Room: Seminarium S304 |
| Chair: Michal Lenartowicz The session presents EASS Young Researcher Award winners 2026 | Chair: Marcelle Dawson ID 117: State Responsibility and Local Reality: Bridging Policy and Perception in China's Ethnic Minority Traditional Sports (Tianyu Song) ID 145: 'The further you go, the whiter it gets': Racialised barriers to career progression in the senior leadership workforce at sports bodies in the UK. (Steven Bradbury) | Chair: Joanne Hill ID 118: Who Produces Theory in the Sociology of Sport? East Asia's Position in Authorship Networks and Theory Production in a Core Global Journal (Thijs Velema) ID 396: No two persons ever read the same book': The Politics of Language Revisited (Peter Donnelly) ID 428: State of the art: The visual semiotic method has been used in the field of Sociology of Sport and of Martial Arts to varying degrees (Sebastián Chávez-Hernández) ID 439: Methodological reflections from the action research fields of | Chairs: Pirkko Markula and Annelies Knoppers ID 242: Using critical perspectives to theorize masculinities in management and leadership in sport organizations (Annelies Knoppers) ID 333: Rethinking the Culture of Gendered Organization in Sport (Pirkko Markula) ID 358: What does the category coach want from me? (Sara Campbell) ID 440: Varieties of Gender Regimes: Resistance to Gender Equity in International Sports | Chair: Szilvia Perenyi ID 391: Legacy Without the Event: Responsibilizing China's Football Stadiums after China Withdrew as Host of the 2023 AFC Asian Cup (Jingtao Zheng) ID 108: Mega-Events as Critical Junctures in the Global South: Bureaucratic Disruption and Institutional Change from Chile's Santiago 2023 Pan American Games (Diego Moreno) ID 156: Enhancing spectator well-being through sport event merchandise: Pathways from Perceived Value and Satisfaction to Event | Chair: Jari Lämsä ID 386: Financial inequality and its relation to children's and youth's physical activity and sports participation (Outi Aarresola) ID 280: Youth players at the crossroads - coping with the insecurity of the junior-to-senior transition in football (Jacek Burski) ID 308: Relational spaces of young people's active travel: explaining the (in)effectiveness of an intervention (Elina Hasanen) ID 330: Responsibility in practice: how values are enacted | Chair: Parissa Safai ID 119: Looking for and Looking at the Moving Fat Body (Hannele Harjunen) ID 122: Body forms matter; or why we're not heading towards a World Anti-Drugs in Rock n' Roll Agency (Ulrik Wagner) ID 140: Analyzing the Aesthetics of Existence of CrossFit Practitioners through Foucault's Technologies of the Self (Yu-Tse Liu) ID 270: Sovereign Embodiment: A Gendered Analysis of Aboriginal Peoples Experiences of Community Football in | Chair: Kimmo Isotalo ID 449: Beyond Symbolic Inclusion: Governance, Ability and the Integration of Para Swimming (Kim Wickman) ID 445: Sport and Social Intervention A Monitoring Study with Disadvantaged Youths in Bergamo (Italy) (Antonio Borgogni) ID 51: Polished discourses, backdoor exclusions: Power struggles over the meaning of diversity and inclusion under the IOC's 2021 Framework (Tram Bui) ID 105: Title: "We felt safe there" Protective factors and perceived pathways in youth- | Chair: Natalia Organista ID 212: Exploring sport coaching mentoring programmes: A systematic literature review (Kristof Jaccina) ID 240: Beyond a Normative Sport-Centered Approach: Rethinking Rule Modification in Sport Education through the Case of Catch Volleyball (Sho Shiraishi) ID 245: Play to Learn: A Systematic Review of Quantitative Evidence on the Educational Effects of Girls' Participation in Sport (Léonie Delpeyrou) ID 279: Mediating Health in Schools: PE Teachers' Perspectives on Youth, Physical Activity and Wellbeing (Karin Andersson) | Chair: Elina Hasanen ID 275: "Indigenous Athletes, Indigenous Systems": Wellbeing and Decolonising Praxis through Netball in Aotearoa New Zealand. (Bevan Erueti) ID 357: Who Owns the Concussion Crisis? : Mapping Documentary Networks of Evidence, Authority, and Responsibility (Donghyung Kim) ID 377: Beyond the Scoreboard: Evaluating If and How Community Programmes of a Professional Football Club Contribute to Positive Health. (Jasper van Houten) ID 402: Beyond Reintegration: A |

| | | | | | | | | | |
|--|--|---|--|--|--|---|---|--|--|
| | ID 146: Examining the neoliberal framing of race equality initiatives in sport (Jim Lusted) ID 251: Addressing Gender and Ethnic Identity in Iranian Football Fan Music (Bahar Asl) ID 417: An indigenous lens on lived experiences in Sámi cultures (Bente Ovedie Skogvang) | health, fitness, & sport (Brian Gearity) ID 248: Enacting Ethical Responses: Reflexive Praxis in Sport Club Assemblages (Tatiana V. Ryba) | Federations (Lucie Schoch) ID 232: Whiteness and hegemonic masculinity: normalised discriminatory microaggressions and power hierarchies in Dutch sport clubs (Rens Cremers) | and City Identification and Multi-Dimensional Well-Being (Bingxu Cheng) ID 306: The Multiple Transgressions of Sport Streakers (Karl-Heinrich Bette) ID 435: Social acceptance of sport infrastructure: the case of the 2023 World Athletics Championships in Budapest (Balázs Polcsik) ID 53: 'Football for all, for good, for the future'? Euro 2028 and the competing political discourses of multi-nation sporting events (Stuart Whigham) | through rituals in Dutch youth rugby (Justus Beth) ID 436: Loving, having and being: re-imagining fatherhood and youth sports practice (Christian Thue Bjørndal) | Melbourne (Asha Steer) ID 311: Moral world-making in endurance running (Toomas Gross) | based sport programmes within PVE contexts in Pakistan (Umair Asif) ID 372: The implications of good and bad experiences with physical activity (Karsten Elmoose-Østerlund) | ID 341: Allegiance as Asset Class: Private Equity, Speculative Capital, and the Political Economy of Fan Subjectification in U.S. Collegiate Athletics (Joshua Newman) | Multidimensional Analysis of Sport, Well-being, Identity Transformation, and Life Satisfaction Among Retired Military Personnel in Nigeria (Richard Ajiee) ID 47: Insights from a review on end-of-career transition and athlete health (Hanwei Zhang) |
|--|--|---|--|--|--|---|---|--|--|

Coffee break
15:10-15:40 at Main building (C) lobby

Parallel Sessions
15:40-17:00

| | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|--|--|--|---------------------------------------|--|---|--|--|
| Sub-Theme: Climate change and Environmental Sustainability in Sport | Sub-Theme: Child protection and safeguarding in sport | Thematic session: Measuring Social Inequalities in Sports and the Role of Public Policies (MEASURE Research Network) | Workshop title: SportEX -Project Workshop: Rehearsing Ethical Response In Sports | Sub-Theme: Sport Participation | Sub-Theme: Sport and Gender | Sub-Theme: Sport and Migration | Sub-Theme: Sport, Nation and Identities Sport and Tourism | Sub-Theme: Sport and Ethnicity Sport and Power Relations | Sub-Theme: Sport and Social Change Youth Sport |
| Room: Main building C1 | Room: Main building C2 | Room: Main building C310 | Room: Main building C411 | Room: Main building C4 | Room: Main building C5 | Room: Main building S203 | Room: Seminarium S204 | Room: Seminarium S303 | Room: Seminarium S304 |

| | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|--|--|---|--|---|--|
| Chair: Mikko Simula ID 99: Environment Justice and Climate Inequity on Sport Mega-Events in the Middle East (Hsin Chuan Chen) ID 114: Beyond Financial Incentives: A Case Study of Barriers to Engagement in Sustainable Mobility in Swiss Voluntary Snow Sport Clubs (Anna Boemmel) ID 228: Sensing Slow Violence: Surfers' Environmental Activism and the Politics of Knowledge in Coastal Japan (Yushi Miyazawa) ID 262: Sport, social infrastructure, and the ecology of aid: Lessons from Jasper, AB (Tavis Smith) | Chair: Inger Eliasson ID 226: Mapping a culture of care in elite sport: participatory insights from the ROCIES project (Froukje Smits) ID 271: Governing Safe Sport: A Comparative Archaeological Analysis of Safeguarding Codes in Singapore and Malaysia (Yong-Yee Chong) ID 288: Sport Safeguarding in a Field in Transition: Insights from Kosovo (Nita Gjikalili) ID 344: Safeguarding Awareness and Professional Socialization among Future Sports Professionals in Hungary (Martin Kiss) | Chairs: Jeroen Scheerder and Remco Hoekman ID 301: Architectural inclusion barriers: How life experience shapes the perception of movement spaces (Jens Høyer-Kruse) ID 137: A Critique of Pure Participation: Political Preferences and the Social Stratification of Sports (Jelle Muraille) ID 431: A Preliminary Analysis of the Experiences of Transgender High School Athletes in the United States (Yannick Kluch) ID 283: Unresolved Potentials and Structural Constraints: Understanding the Future of Inclusive Sport Provision in Denmark (Maja Pilgaard) | Chairs: Saara Isosomppi, Aku Nikander and Tatiana V. Ryba The workshop presents the pedagogical material developed in the "Who Is Excluded From Gender Equality In Elite Sport?" (SportEX) -research project for practicing ethical response-ability in concrete ethically tense situations in sports context. The pedagogical practice builds on embodied dialogue and collective reflection that facilitate experiential learning in relational everyday ethics. The practice is intended for the use of sports communities and organizations and it can be applied to contextually relevant issues. The workshop includes a short presentation of the material, active participation in and doing of the group practice (45 min) and a joint discussion afterwards. | Chair: Henriikka Koivukoski ID 152: Cultural capital and sports participation in Denmark (Bjarne Ibsen) ID 415: The Effect of Sports Participation on Household Human Capital Investment (Yilin Zeng) ID 223: Unequal Pathways from Screens to Sport: Sport Participation as a Structuring Force in Youth Everyday Life (Zhanning Sun) ID 84: Swimming to the Summit: Exploring open water swimming practices for "development" swimmers in Cape Town, South Africa (Marizanne Grundlingh) | Chair: Karsten Elmoose-Osterlund ID 322: A qualitative analysis of bodybuilders' affective and sexual relationships (Carlos García) ID 327: Revealing the untold stories of girls' hockey on Cape Breton Island (Bettina Callary) ID 334: Embodied Empowerment: Gender, Growth, and Everyday Sport in Women's Recreational Basketball (Fang Gong) ID 347: Inspirational Labor and the Affective Economy of Women's Soccer Fandom (Tarlan Chahardovali) | Chair: Richard Ajjee ID 403: Immigrant communities, belonging and citizenship: ethnographic research of football and futsal in multilingual Ostrobothnia (Samu Kytölä) ID 422: Sports participation: a lens for analyzing integration. Findings from the 2020 French National Survey on Physical and Sports Practices (ENPPS) (Olivier Aubel) ID 324: Shifting Racism, Absent Responses: The Politics of Anti-Racism in Czech Football (Jakub Vávrovský) ID 58: Gendered Exclusion, Migration, and the Sport culture of clubs in Leipzig: Pathways to Equitable Access (Jesús Fernández Gavira) | Chair: Hans K Hognestad ID 285: National sport heroes as social role models for urban youth? (Agnes Elling) ID 419: Class Conflict and the Reconstruction of Chinese National Identity in Beijing Winter Olympics (Huiyu Yin) ID 258: Sports—Cultural Space Distribution and Production in the Qilian Mountain Region (Hanyi Li) ID 353: Who Gets to Represent the Nation? South Korean Women Footballers and National Representation in Transnational Sport (Hye Jin Kim) | Chair: Veera Manninen ID 190: White domination of high school sports: Data on the general population of US High School Students and sports performance (Pat Rubio Goldsmith) ID 328: Conditional Inclusion in Professional Football: Supporter Attitudes, Media Discourses and Institutional Responses to Racism in Belgium (Jeroen Scheerder) ID 369: Drawer, desk, and compass policies: PA promotion policy use in municipalities (Evald Bundgaard Iversen) ID 1: Reconceptualising Sportswashing: The IOC and the Elective Affinities of Complicity (Steve Jackson) | Chair: Natalia Organista ID 277: Exploring Change within the Swedish Sport Movement (Fredrik Petersson) ID 92: Who gets selected? A study of the Swedish youth national talent program in football (Magnus Ferry) ID 234: Cultural and Identity Formation Among Youth Footballers: An Ethnographic Study of Huachipato FC (Miguel Cornejo) |
|---|---|---|---|--|--|---|--|---|--|

Conference Dinner 17:30-23:00

Juurikkasaari (Departure from Harbour) (Jyväskylä Satama, Address: Satamakatu 8)

Note: The boats will depart at 17:30. Please arrive at the departure point at least 15 minutes earlier. Late arrivals may miss the boats.

Thursday, 18 June

Registration and info desk opens 8:30 at Main building (C) lobby

Keynote 1, Ramon Llopis Goig
Chair: Parissa Safai
9:00-10:00 at Main building C1

Coffee break
10:00-10:30 at Main building (C) lobby

Parallel Sessions 10:30-12:30

| | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|--|--|--|--|--|--|-------------------------------------|---|
| Sub-Theme: Esports and virtual sports | Sub-Theme: Climate change and Environmental Sustainability in Sport | Sub-Theme: Sport and Social Change Sport and Human Rights Child protection and safeguarding in sport | Sub-Theme: Violence in sport | Sub-Theme: Sport and Gender Sport and Aging | Sub-Theme: Sport and Media Sport and New Technologies | Sub-Theme: Sport and Migration | Sub-Theme: Sport and Education | Sub-Theme: Sport and Asia | Sub-Theme: Sport, Development and Peace |
| Room: Main building C1 | Room: Main building C2 | Room: Main building C310 | Room: Main building C411 | Room: Main building C4 | Room: Main building C5 | Room: Seminarium S203 | Room: Seminarium S204 | Room: Seminarium S303 | Room: Seminarium S304 |

| | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|--|---|---|---|---|--|---|---|
| Chair: Eivind Skille ID 332: Ability and Passion: The Self-Identity Construction of Professional eSports Players (Xiangyu Chen) ID 184: Women Coaches in Esports: A Digital Ethnography of Reddit Discussions (Mayte Ortiz-Romero) ID 300: Contradictions between Esports Promotion Discourse and Digital Game Regulation Discourse (Seunghoon Lee) ID 407: To Dream a Distant Dream? Esports Career Intentions among Hong Kong Youth and the Role of Schools as Institutional Control (Andy Chiu) ID 49: How inclusive is esports culture in The Netherlands? An examination of inclusion and exclusion through a race- and gender-conscious perspective (Carmen Longas Luque) | Chair: Anna-Katriina Salmikangas ID 395: An Analysis of Carbon Footprint Methodology Reform of the International Olympic Committee: Drivers, Content, and Governance Implications (Peng Wang) ID 421: Web Crawling the Green Image: An Analysis of Environmental Sustainability Communication on Sports Club Websites (Regina Roschmann) ID 446: Performative Sustainability in Sport Mega-Events: Ecological Modernization, Degrowth, and the Concealment of Capitalist Unsustainability (Bradley Sharples) ID 346: Sustainable Transitions in Sport: A Critical Review of Pathways, Paradigms, and Possibilities (Attila Szathmári) ID 349: Venue reuse, greenwashing, and organised irresponsibility: Environmental sustainability at the Gangwon 2024 Youth Olympics (Sihyeong Cho) | Chair: Bente Ovedie-Skogvang ID 72: Beyond Loudness: Rethinking Gendered and Eurocentric Hierarchies in Athlete Activism Through Alternative Activist Practices (Marloes Ekkelboom) ID 181: Keeping the Pandora’s box closed: (de)legitimation of social practices in high-performance sport upon an ethical crisis (Sanna Erdogan) ID 289: “It’s (Not) Their Business” – How Political Orientation Shapes Attitudes Toward Athlete Activism (Christiana Schallhorn) ID 286: Narratives of youth coaches’ participation rights in sports clubs (Fiona Dowling) ID 363: An Autoethnography on the Developments in the “Hakamada Case” and the Transformation of Support Attitudes Among Boxing Community Members (Shosei Nitta) ID164: Sexual harassment and abuse in equine sports: Risk factors and safeguarding implications (Susanne Johansson) | Chair: Toni Bruce ID 294: Everyday fan violence in football (Mateusz Grodecki) ID 450: A Qualitative Analysis of Athletic Identity, Acceptance and Disclosure of Emotional Abuse in Sport (Jatta Muhonen) ID 433: Cross-checking on Tropical Ice: Examining Physical Contact and Masculinity Among Ice Hockey Expatriates in Taiwan (Te-Tsung Liu) 1D 106: How Sport for Development Programs Contribute to Preventing Violent Extremism in Pakistan: Stakeholder Perspectives (Simon Rosenbaum) ID 370: Authoritarian Violence and Structural Defence in Japanese Sport (Sotaro Muramoto) ID 323: “Maybe this must be endured if one wants to do sports”: Experiences of sexual harassment among sports stakeholders. (Aku Nikander) | Chair: Karin Andersson ID 206: Female fans in men’s football in Norway. Preliminary findings (Arve Hjelseth) ID 230: How does framing shape public support for transgender exclusion in elite sport? - Evidence from a German survey experiment (Mara Konjer) ID 281: Critical explorations of the purpose, design and effectiveness of Women-only Leadership Development Programmes (WLDPs) in sport (Jordan Matthews) ID 87: An Examination of Gender and Social Identity Amongst ‘Tomboy’ Athletes in Mainland China (Mengqiu Chang) ID 56: Active Ageing on the Dance Floor: Competitive Senior Ballroom | Chair: Mikko Simula ID 378: Selling football dreams The rise of commercialism in Dutch amateur football (Joop Truijen) ID 90: Gaming as the New Sport: Agency, Responsibility, and the Transformation of Children’s Education (Ismail Ergen) ID 198: “Getting lost in the numbers?”: How power data shapes elite cyclists’ practices and understandings (Stian Røsten) ID 183: Technology on the Field – But Who Draws the Lines, and How? (Gábor Mátrai) | Chair: Henriikka Koivukoski ID 165: Double consciousness and sport participation: Investigating the role of bicultural identity for youth’s involvement in sport (Selçuk Açıkgöz) ID 192: “It’s Not the Same for Us”: Intergenerational Negotiations of Sport and Physical Culture within the Chinese Diaspora in New Zealand (Hongxiu Guo) ID 219: Japanese Lifestyle Sports Migrants in Australia (Naoki Chiba) ID 142: Making Informal Physical Activity Visible: A Gender-Sensitive Qualitative Mapping of Migrant Engagements in Urban Public Space (Ana Blanco-Ayala) ID 261: Examining the physical, social and spiritual activities that shape the migration experiences of West-Central Africans (Astou Thiam) | Chair: Veera Manninen ID 362: The significance of physiological testing in sport: The elite athletes’ perspectives (Runa Westerlund) ID 303: The Dilemma between Education and Competition in School Physical Education (Hyeeun Kim) ID 309: Interactional Processes of Inclusive Co-Play in Physical Education (Yuichi Hara) ID 77: Olympic Values Education In The Process of Olympic Reform And Development: China's Practice and Future Prospects (Chenchen SUN) ID 355: Rethinking PE assessments on school reports in | Chair: Sun-Yong Kwon ID 161: From Cultural Roots to Social Scale: A Dual-Axis Analysis of Football Fandom and Regional Identity in Contemporary China (Congcong Qi) ID 250: All Play, No Podium? Rethinking the Grassroots-to-Elite Assumption in Taiwan Basketball Governance (Chih-Hsuan Hung) ID 229: Theoretical considerations on the Japanese sport system in comparison to the German sport system based on the social systems theory (Katrin Jumiko Leitner) ID 34: From Zero to Hero: The Development of Elite Fencing in Hong Kong (Wen WU) | Chair: Michal Lenartowicz ID 266: An investigation into the benefits and challenges of using Olympic sport as a means of empowerment, integration, and advocacy for refugees (Jeehoo Kim) ID 105: Title: “We felt safe there” Protective factors and perceived pathways in youth-based sport programmes within PVE contexts in Pakistan (Umair Asif) ID 304: Examining Peace Education Orientations in Sport–Peace Initiatives in South Korea (Siheon Song) ID 416: Re-humanising the liminality of borderlands through sport for development and peace: a comparison of two cases |
|---|---|--|---|---|---|---|--|---|---|

| | | | | | | | | | |
|--|--|--|--|---|--|--|--|--|--|
| | | | | Dancing as Serious Leisure (Mariusz Finkielstein) | | | primary education: perspectives of Dutch PE teachers (Elien Plompen) | | (Matthew Holmes) ID 110: Sharing gifts: The modus narrandi of athletes' and former athletes' interests in supporting sport for development and peace programmes in Brazil (Billy Graeff) ID 15: Beyond the Arena: The Evolutionary History, Chinese Practice, and Future Pathways of the Sports for Development and Peace (Siyuan Yu) |
|--|--|--|--|---|--|--|--|--|--|

Closing Ceremony
12:30-13:15

Lunch break
13:00-14:00
You'll find several restaurants on campus see details on the website
You can have your lunch in Ilokivi, Lozzi, Taide and Uno resturants

Friday, 19 June
Post-conference tour for pre-registered participants (see details on the website)

