

Call for Applications

The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences announces call for applications from the strategic funding allocated to the faculty by the Rector. The funding is focused on advancing research possibilities and internationalization of research as well as developing teaching. you may apply funding for:

1. Project planning and drawing up funding applications
2. Advancing research projects (e.g. research assistants, equipment)
3. Creating or maintaining research networks (especially international and/or interdisciplinary networks)
4. Development of teaching

In item 1 the funding may be applied for a short (1-2 months) period hiring. The aim is to support the acquisition of external, especially international research funding.

In item 4 the faculty will especially support applications, which enhance collaborative teaching of disciplines or in which new pedagogy or learning environments are piloted and produce experience, which can be utilized in the departments of the faculty at large.

The basic criteria for granting funding are the quality, feasibility and innovativeness of the idea. In addition, the use of funding should contribute to the activity of the faculty and departments' core areas concerning research and teaching as well as the profiling of the faculty.

Applicants should draw up a short (maximum of 2 pages) plan, which presents the project's

- reasoning, aim and execution,
- outcome,
- schedule,
- the overall costs and
- the plan how strategic funding would be used.

You may apply funding for planned costs. All costs must actualize during the year 2017. Possible excess funding does NOT shift to next year. The funded projects should submit a report the outcomes to the Faculty no later than the end of January 2018.

Send your application via electronic application form, which is available in the following webpage: <https://www.jyu.fi/hytk/en/faculty/administration/scholarships-in-the-faculty-of-humanities-and-social-sciences/sholarships-in-the-faculty-of-humanities-and-social-sciences>

Please note that applications cannot be submitted by either email or in paper form.

All applications must be submitted by Monday, May 8th 2017 by 15:00 hours.

The Heads of the Departments will be asked to make a prioritized list of the applications to the Dean. The Dean's decision will be announced to all applicants.

Minna-Riitta Luukka, Dean
