

EDICC REPORTING: Stakeholder events and presentations

| |
|--|
| 1. Organizer of the event or presentation University of Tartu, Estonia |
| 2. Date and place of the event or presentation 3 June 2011, Estonian University of Life Sciences |
| 3. Type of event or presentation International LSP Conference 'Bridging specialised competences: innovative approaches explored' |
| 4. Objective of the event or presentation <ul style="list-style-type: none">- to present EDICC project to the stakeholders and to raise interest in the matter- to introduce the first EDICC course in Krems in 2012- to know how educational institutions deal with intercultural issues- to understand the point of view of educational institutions regarding development of intercultural competence- to create links between the stakeholders and EDICC |
| 5. Description of event proceedings <ul style="list-style-type: none">- The meeting started with the presentation of EDICC project- The representatives of the companies expressed their point of view in regard to the need of intercultural competence in their specific fields.- Together we defined the links between their needs and our offer |
| 6. Target groups/participants in the event <ul style="list-style-type: none">- University lecturers and researchers from various countries of the EU, USA and Russia |
| 7. Results and feedback received The participants of the conference expressed interest in the programme and acknowledge the importance of intercultural trainings. The possibility of having courses on this subject was very much appreciated by the participants at the meeting and they showed interest in learning more about the development of EDICC project. |
| 8. Next steps Maintain contact with the organisations already involved and use the contact list provided on the occasion of this meeting for further promotion of EDICC and recruitment of participants in the courses which will be delivered. Search for other companies and organisations that might show interest in this filed. |